Criterion-3 RESEARCH INNOVATIONS AND EXTENTION

KI: 3.2.

Metric No. 3.2.1: The institution has created an ecosystem for innovations, the Indian Knowledge System (IKS), including awareness about IPR, the establishment of an IPR cell, Incubation centre and other initiatives for the creation and transfer of knowledge/technology and outcomes of the same are evident

Asian College of Science and Commerce's commitment to promoting the Indian Knowledge System (IKS), Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) awareness, and innovation is truly remarkable. By establishing an IPR cell, an incubation centre, and a culture about IKS, the college has fostered a culture of creativity and entrepreneurship that has resulted in the development of new technologies, products, and services that can be beneficial to society.

The positive outcomes of these efforts are already evident and are benefiting both students and teachers alike. Moreover, the college's focus on innovation and technology transfer is a promising development that can help to drive economic growth and improve the quality of life for people. By nurturing a culture of innovation, the college is helping to create a pool of skilled professionals who can contribute to the development of society and the country as a whole.

Research Policy

Research is a crucial aspect of academic institutions that helps to enhance knowledge, innovation, and creativity. To foster a research culture in colleges and universities, it is essential to have a well-defined research policy that can motivate students and teachers to undertake research work systematically. The college has prepared a research policy that aims to provide a platform for students and teachers to work together on research projects, encourage interdisciplinary research, and enhance the quality of research publications. The Research Coordination Committee (RCC) has been constituted by the college to ensure that the research policy is implemented effectively.

The research policy should cover and provide the scope of research that is applicable to both undergraduate and postgraduate students and teachers of the college. One of the primary objectives of the research policy is to create a research culture that fosters innovation and creativity. To achieve this objective, the policy should encourage students and teachers to undertake research work that addresses local, national, and global challenges. This will not only promote innovation but also help in solving real-world problems.

Another objective of the research policy is to provide a platform for students and teachers to work together and collaborate on research projects. Collaboration between students and teachers is essential for the success of research projects. The policy should provide guidelines for selecting research topics and supervisors, which will help in ensuring that students and teachers work together effectively.

To promote the use of technology and other research resources for effective research outcomes, the policy should have guidelines for conducting research, including data collection, analysis, and interpretation. These guidelines should be well-defined and should ensure that the research work is carried out with academic integrity and ethical standards. The research work should be free from plagiarism or any other form of academic misconduct. The policy should also ensure that the research findings are shared with the academic community through appropriate channels.

The framework of the research policy should include the roles and responsibilities of the RCC, students, and teachers in the research process. This will help in ensuring that everyone involved in the research process understands their roles and responsibilities. The timelines and milestones for the research work should also be clearly defined in the policy to ensure that the research work is completed within the stipulated time frame.

The policy should also have criteria for evaluating the quality of research work and publications. The evaluation criteria should be objective and should be based on the quality of research work and publications. This will help in ensuring that the research work is of high quality and meets the required standards.

The RCC should ensure that the research work conforms to the guidelines and regulations of the university and funding agencies. The research publications should acknowledge the support of the college and funding agencies. This will help in ensuring that the research work is recognized and valued by the academic community.

Introduction:

Asian College of Science and Commerce has organised guest lecture under The IPR Cell. We have Providing assistance in scientific R&D by providing the latest publications and patents on the subject. Providing Patentability opinion on the invention. Preparation of documents for filing IPR Applications. Facilitating filing IPR Applications and follow up thereafter.

1. Applications are invited for a workshop on patent drafting for the innovations having IP potential and are at the stage of ready to file a patent.
2. Research students and faculty members are requested to register for the said program by submitting the disclosure form of invention enclosed with this letter.
3. Note: Please submit the form at Asian College of science and Commerce.
4. The workshop is limited only for on campus Research students and Faculty members of Asian College of Science and Commerce.
5. Venue and time will be communicated to the short-listed participants.

OBJECTIVES:

- Understanding Intellectual Property Rights
- Exploring Patent Drafting Process
- Analysing Patentability Criteria
- Understanding Patent Prosecution
- Assessing Patent Portfolio Management
- Addressing Emerging Issues and Trends

*Conclusion :-

Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), particularly in the form of patents, are essential for fostering innovation, protecting inventions, and promoting economic growth. The patent filing process is a critical aspect of the patent system, enabling inventors to secure exclusive rights to their inventions and disclose technical information to the public. Total 63 students were present in this Workshop.

The programme was ended with vote of thanks by Asst.Prof. Shraddha Jagtap.

Online Guest Lecture Activity Report
on
“Intellectual Property (IP) Public Policy Issues”

Guest Speaker : Mrs. Manishya Karpe
MGNCRE Member.

Date : 19-01-2021

Time : 11:30 Am.

Introduction :

Asian College of Science and Commerce, under The Department of Commerce and Management had organized a Online Guest Lecture on “ Intellectual Property (IP) Public Policy Issues” to explore the various forms of IP, including patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets, and their respective roles in protecting different types of intellectual assets online mode on Google meet (<https://meet.google.com/iuz-mmmz-zzq>). The guest speaker who has introduce IPR (Intellectual Property Rights and Public policy Issues) to our students. It's important to understand how to protect your IP. Some forms of IP right such as a trade mark, design, patent or plant breeder's right are registered rights and need formal application and examination before you can claim a right to ownership. Other forms of IP protection such as copyright do not need to be registered.

Objectives :

- Understanding the Role of Intellectual Property (IP)
- Identifying Key Public Policy Issues
- Assessing the Impact of IP on Innovation and Access to Knowledge
- Addressing Challenges in IP Enforcement
- Promoting Balanced IP Policies

*Conclusion :-

Intellectual Property (IP) public policy issues are complex and multifaceted, requiring careful consideration of competing interests, societal needs, and economic imperatives. While IP rights are essential for incentivizing innovation, creativity, and investment in research and development, they also raise significant public policy challenges related to access to knowledge, competition, and cultural diversity. Total 49 students were present for this guest lecture.

The programme was ended with vote of thanks by Asst. Prof. Swati V. Dhonde

Guest Lecture Activity Report

ON

Intellectual Property Right(IPR)

Guest Speaker : Dr. Mahesh Deshpande
CCs College Wakud. Pune.
Date : 19-11-2018
Time : 11:00 Am.

Introduction:

Asian College of Science and Commerce, under The Department of Commerce and Management had organized a Guest Lecture on Intellectual Property Right (IPR) at Seminar hall

Objectives:

- The lecture was organized with an objective to familiarize students about the Intellectual Property Right (IPR).
- To know the importance Intellectual Property Right (IPR).

Content Highlights:

➤ Overview of Intellectual Property:

The lecture began with a comprehensive overview of intellectual property, covering patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. The speaker explained the importance of protecting intellectual assets and their role in fostering innovation and creativity.

➤ Types of Intellectual Property:

The speaker delved into the details of each type of intellectual property, providing real-world examples to illustrate concepts. Participants gained a clear understanding of how patents protect inventions, trademarks safeguard brands, copyrights cover artistic works, and trade secrets maintain confidentiality.

➤ Intellectual Property Laws and Regulations:

The lecture highlighted key intellectual property laws and international treaties that govern intellectual property rights. Special emphasis was placed on how these laws differ across jurisdictions and the importance of adhering to them for global business operations.

➤ Challenges and Emerging Issues:

The speaker addressed contemporary challenges and emerging issues in the realm of intellectual property, such as the impact of digital technology on copyright, the role of open-source movements, and the challenges posed by counterfeiting and piracy.

➤ Case Studies:

Real-life case studies were presented to illustrate the practical application of intellectual property concepts. These case studies helped participants understand the complexities involved in protecting intellectual property and the potential consequences of infringement.

➤ Interactive Q&A Session:

The lecture concluded with an interactive question and answer session, allowing participants to seek clarification on specific topics and share their experiences related to intellectual property issues.

Conclusion:

Conclusion:

The guest lecture on Intellectual Property Rights was a resounding success, providing participants with a deeper understanding of the importance of protecting intellectual assets and complying with relevant laws. The insights shared by Dr. Mahesh Deshpande CC's College Wakad, Pune were valuable, making the event both informative and engaging for all attendees. The knowledge gained from this lecture will undoubtedly contribute to the participants' ability to navigate the complex landscape of intellectual property in their professional endeavours.

The programme was ended with vote of thanks by Asst. Prof. Smिता Mulay.

Guest Speaker :- Adv. Shailendra. M. Deshpande
IPR Attorney along with
HR Consultant Graphologist

Date : 27/1/2024
Time : 11:30 Am

Introduction:

Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) encompass various legal rights that are granted to individuals or entities over creations of the mind. Two primary forms of IPR are patents and copyrights, each serving distinct purposes in protecting different types of intellectual creations. Patents typically safeguard inventions and innovations, granting exclusive rights to their creators for a limited period. On the other hand, copyrights protect original works of authorship, such as literary, artistic, musical, or dramatic creations. Both patents and copyrights play pivotal roles in fostering innovation, creativity, and economic growth by incentivizing creators to invest time, effort, and resources into developing new ideas and expressions.

OBJECTIVE:

- To introduce fundamental aspects of Intellectual property Rights to students who are going to play a major role in development and management of innovative projects in industries.
- To disseminate knowledge on patents, patent regime in india and abroad and registration aspects.

- To disseminate knowledge on copyrights and its related rights and registration aspects
- To disseminate knowledge on trademarks and registration aspects

CONCLUSION:

Patents and copyrights are indispensable tools for fostering innovation, creativity, and economic development in modern society. By providing creators and inventors with exclusive rights to their intellectual creations, these legal mechanisms incentivize investment in research, development, and artistic expression. Moreover, they ensure fair competition, protect the rights of creators, and facilitate knowledge sharing and dissemination. As we navigate an increasingly knowledge-based economy, the role of intellectual property rights in driving progress and prosperity becomes ever more critical. Therefore, it is imperative to uphold and strengthen the legal frameworks governing patents and copyrights to continue promoting innovation, protecting creator rights, and fostering sustainable economic growth. Total 70 students were present for this 1 day guest lecture.

Subject: Application for Incubatee.

Respected,

I am student of T.Y. BBA Class from Asian college of Science & Commerce
---College, writing to submit an application for assistance from our Asian Incubation Centre for My start-up, (AARMS PHOTOGRAPHY). I believe that Asian Incubation centre would be an ideal partner for our entrepreneurial journey. I am confident that with your support and resources, we can accelerate the growth and success of our start-up.

I am looking forward for your assistance towards preparing following documents.

- 1. Business Plan: A comprehensive overview of our start-up, including our mission, target market, revenue model, and growth strategy.
- 2. Financial Projections: Detailed projections of our financial performance over the next --- ----- time period.
- 3. Product/Service Description: A detailed description of the product/service we are developing and its unique value proposition.

I am excited about the opportunity to potentially collaborate with Asian Incubation Centre and I prepared to participate in any further interviews or pitch sessions as required.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of working together to bring my start-up to the next level.

Faithfully,
